FOUND.—On St. Clair street, a folding key, evidently belonging to the door of some store. Call at this office and get it.

Mr. Will C. Bedford, of the Forks of Elkhorn precinct, leads the farmers of the county this spring. He has thirty acres of corn planted that has sprouted and is beginning to come through the ground.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church this week has developed a marked interest. There have been large congregations and twelve additions to the Church. The meetings will continue next week.

Mr. Adams, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, passed through the city Monday afternoon, in a private car supplied with sleeping, sitting and dining apartments, on his way from New York to New Orleans over the C. & O. Road.

A number of Mountaineers have arrived in this city with rats of sawlogs and report the river above filled with them on the way down. So the saw-mills will soon be supplied with timber enough to run them all summer.

Tol. Paxton, a young man about 20 years of age, from the Farmdale neighborhood, was tried Tuesday afternoon on a warrant of lunacy and found to be insane. He was taken to Lexington Wednesday.

Those enterprising gentlemen, Messrs. Crutcher & Starks, of the great White Hall Clothing House, on yesterday sold Dr. J. I. Lighthall, a handsome $100 silk velvet suit of clothes. When the doctor gets it on his diamonds will be more dazzling than ever.

The base ball season will be opened in this city next Saturday. The first game will be played at Capital Park that day between the Lexington and Frankfort nines of the Inter-State League.

Messrs Wells and Schultscheidt will be remembered as the splendid battery of last year's Capital nine, Messrs. Goodloe Hammond, Frank Buttiner, and Shinkle were also members of that club last season, and all of them first class players. The other four are new men here, but have the reputation of being good players. Mr. Frank Buttiner is the only one who lives here, Mr. Goodloe Hammond lives in Henry county, and all the balance are Louisville boys. The whole nine is expected to be here on Monday to go into training. In the meantime the new grounds on Holmes street are being gotten in readiness as rapidly as possible.

Below we give a schedule of the games to be played here during the season:

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS ARE OFFERED IN THE WAY of fine pictures of all styles and descriptions. Why will the people of Frankfort send to the city for work when they can be accommodated at home.

Oct. 25-tf.

Mr. Otis W. Snyder, the wide awake Lexington Jeweler, comes to the front in this issue with an advertisement every one should read. He means business, and will sell you anything in his line at the lowest figures. If you go to Lexington call and see him.

Mr. Jas. H. Graham broke ground Monday morning for a handsome two-story brick residence on the lot he recently purchased from Judge W. P. D. Bush, on Washington street. The work will be done under the supervision of Mr. Gus Shaeffer, and of course will be executed in the best possible manner.

Just after the storm of Friday night of last week, several young men were returning to their homes in South Frankfort, and when they reached the corner of Shelby and Cross streets they found the sidewalk overflowed to the depth of six or eight inches with water from the gutter, in passing around the pool they heard something fluttering in the water, which, by the aid of the flashes of lightning, they discovered to be a wild duck. They at once set to work to catch it, and after a lively chase of a few minutes, in which two or three of them got a good wetting by tumbling down in the water, one of the party, Mr. Frank Graham, succeeded in capturing it. It proved to be a blue-winged Teal, and is supposed to have been beaten down by the hail in attempting to fly over the city during the storm.

R. C. Church's Reply to "Record."

Editor Roundabout:

In your paper of last week some one signing himself "Record" charges that "I as a Counsellman voted in favor of a proposition to exempt all property in Frankfort from taxation for county purposes, except to the extent of ten cents on the hundred dollars." There is not one word in the record of the proceedings of the Council to show that I voted for it. This is the same falsehood that was circulated through the county by handbills and which I denounced in a handbill as an infamous lie. I never voted for or favored such a proposition and the charge that "I did" is false and published for the purpose of deceiving the people and thereby injuring me in the race for Representative. It is not surprising that the manufacturers of these lies are ashamed to sign their names to them.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The Dangers of Blood Poisoning.
Since the death of President Garfield, there seems to have been an increase in the number of recorded cases of blood poisoning.

A few weeks ago the Rev. Noah Schenck, D. D., of Brooklyn, had an operation performed on his foot, inflammation set in and death ensued. If a man be in good health, a wound heals rapidly; if the blood is corrupt, it is slow to heal. Impure blood irritates and inflames the whole system. It follows, then, if the blood purifying organs are deranged—since every particle of blood courses through these organs over one hundred times an hour—in a very short time the blood poison must destroy all vitality.

In the winter season Nature demands heat-making food. In the spring she sets up a cooling process; and to accomplish this, she ordains that the change from winter to summer shall be gradual; if the laws are never violated this provision would be sufficient; they are violated, therefore, we must furnish her help in this spring house-cleaning time, to rid the seeds of disease remain within us.

Blood is made in the stomach; it is purified by the skin, lungs, liver and kidneys. During a long, cold winter, the liver and kidneys are overworked; the consequence is that in the spring these organs are prostrated; the prostration is indicated by extremely dull, heavy feelings and a weariness which seems to go to the bones, headaches, furred tongue, lack of appetite, itching and discolored skin, mental irritability, depression of spirits, neuralgic pains, convulsions, chills and fever, "malaria."

These little irregularities of feeling are Nature's warnings; if neglected, disease may get the upper hand. If you introduce into the blood a kidney and liver poison, you can artificially produce the above symptoms; it follows, therefore, that to remove them, vitality must be restored to these blood purifying organs. If they cannot perform their work no amount of medicine taken for other organs can have any permanent effect in the system.

Brigadier-General D. H. Bruce, business manager of the Syracuse (N. Y.) Journal in 1883, found that he was not coming through life in good form; he was nervous, but only out of condition; to the timely use of a few bottles of Warner's safe cure, however, he attributed recovery of constitutional tone, and undisturbed enjoyment of chronic disorder. This preparation is not a cure-all—it claims to restore the blood-purifying organs to natural vitality; by so doing, it not only cures, but prevents blood corruption and disease. If you doubt its power, ask your friends; millions have heard of it, hundreds of thousands have used it and commented on it.

The ill feelings of spring time are caused by a more or less poisoned condition of the blood; a condition which grows worse by neglect, and finally may send one to the grave.

One day a young physician discovered on his nose what turned out to be a malignant ulceration; the blood virus attacked his brain and killed him.

A prominent merchant of apparently average health died suddenly the other day; an examination showed that one kidney, entirely decayed, had poisoned the blood territory. Had this been recognized in time, he might have lived to the full "three score and ten."

Every day we neglect to take such precautions as are herein indicated, we may be said to drive a nail in our coffin. The blood is poisoned every day; if it is not purified every day, untimely death is inevitable.

There was a lively game of base ball played on the Sandbar Sunday afternoon between two nines made up of Craw boys and Water Works hands. Five innings were played and so sharp was the work that not a score was made nor a man got further than first base.

The first tobacco season of the past few days will no doubt be followed by very large receipts and it is generally expected that Burley tobacco will lose some of its recent advance.

Editor Roundabout:

Having been strongly solicited by many good citizens for several months, and lately by "many voters," to become a candidate to represent Franklin county in the lower branch in the General Assembly, I announce myself a candidate.

I am not a candidate for public printer, nor the candidate of any man, clique, or ring; therefore, if elected, I will be free to work for the good of the county and State. Respectfully,
S. F. SMITH.

Mischief Is Wrought

by bad cooking, tough meats, late hours, business worries, irregular lives, sour dispositions, evil digestion and impure blood. Much of this mischief can be overcome by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters—the best tonic ever made. Mrs. Emily Crawford, Reidsville, Ga., writes, "After trying Brown's Iron Bitters were persuaded that it is all that it claims to be—a good and reliable tonic." Thousands of others speak in like manner.

Dr. Lighthall is having a wagon built for use upon the streets of the cities he visits that will cost him $10,000. It is to be large, roomy, conveniently fitted up, elaborately ornamented, and inlaid with tri le gold.

Frankfort Council, No. 7, Royal Templars of Temperance, will meet at the photograph gallery of Mr. H. G. Mittern on Monday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired as there will be an initiation of a candidate.

Rev. Geo. W. Rilegan, D. D., a prominent minister in the Baptist Church and pastor of the Forks of Elkhorn Church, died at his home near Louisville on Saturday morning, after a painful illness with meninges.

A brilliant youth remarked Tuesday night, while witnessing the operations of the Indian doctor and enjoying the music of his band, that it was very strange that a man who apparently cured so little for money as Dr. Lighthall should be willing to sell his life for ten cents. He has since died suddenly.

Our regular Bridgeport letter came to hand as usual this week, but before it could be put in type was blown out of an open window into the street and lost. We regret the accident exceedingly as our correspondent at that place seldom fails to send in a readable letter.

Col. Thos B Ford received on Thursday the following response to a letter of inquiry as to the probable time at which the Government building would be completed:

THESEY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE OF SUPERVISOR OF ARCHITECTURE.
April 14th, 1885.
Mr. Thomas B. Ford, Clerk, District and Circuit Court, Frankfort, Ky:
SIR: Yours of the 10th inst. is received.

Every effort will be made to complete the Federal building at Frankfort, Ky., at the earliest possible day, and it is hoped that the work will be entirely finished by September next.

Very respectfully,
M. E. BELL,
Superintending Architect.

Mr. John T. Waters wants his friends to remember that he is still in the race for Jailer, and will be in the lead at the finish.

An Equine Wonder.

To show the extent to which the horse is susceptible of training, it is only necessary to visit W. W. Cole's colossal shows and watch the horse Blondu in his unparalleled feat of walking a tight-rope stretched twenty feet above the ground. Every body that sees it declares it a marvel.

As a Councilman, I Made Purchases for the City. Approved my Own Accounts, and Received the Pay.

Editor Roundabout:

Your correspondent, in speaking of Mr. Church as a representative in the City Council of Frankfort, failed to give one act of his that would entitle him to a seat in the Legislature. The writer took a look through the record, and found many things that affirmed the truth of Mr. Church's capacity as a business man.

No friend ever looks up a candidate's record to condemn it. That always arises from a search by those opposing him. This fact ought to be patent to every one. An official's acts are public property. The records make them such, and they alone speak the truth, no matter who may say otherwise. Accounts were presented to the Council of Frankfort by Mr. Church while he was a member of the body, allowed and paid by warrant drawn in his favor on the City Treasurer. Every account against the Fire Department is approved by himself. They can be seen at the Clerk's office. He cannot deny his own signature.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.
Under this head will be found items amounting in all to a little over two thousand dollars. These were all paid to Mr. R. C. Church and all of them are approved by him.

WATER DEPARTMENT.
This account includes items amounting to more than seven hundred dollars. Thus we find a purchasing agent for a municipality having the accounts made out in his own name, approving the same as correct, and securing the money for them is a trustee for the dear people. At said time an ordinance was in force and provided that no Councilman should become interested in any contract with the City whilst in office, the making of which was connected with his official duty during his continuance in office, yet his name is attached to all the accounts.

Antioch.

Ruth, the infant child of Frank and Laura Moore, was buried at Antioch last Sunday evening.

Mr. Henry Spalding says the thunder scared his clock so bad that it stopped running. Was it Henry or the clock that was scared?

Messrs. Boone and Duncan were caught out in the storm Friday night and had to unhitch their horses from the wagon and let them take care of themselves, while they took refuge in Mr. Geo. Ronch's house.

A Sunday-school was organized at Antioch last Sunday with Bro Joe Roberts as Superintendent. Now will the parents come forward and try and make the school a success? "Where there's a will there's a way." Do your duty.

Our neighborhood was visited last Friday night by a heavy hail storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning that was awful but sublime. The rain that followed was also a very hard one and damaged the newly plowed ground to some extent. The hail was the largest that we remember to have ever seen.

Mr. Hiram Penn, accompanied by Mrs. Hurst, while on their way home from Frankfort one day last week, came near having a very serious accident. The horse attached to the wagon became unruly and backed the wagon through the fence at Mr. Ronch's, throwing Mr. Penn out and bruising his face very much. Mrs. H. was fortunately not in the wagon at the time.

Jett.

W. T. B. South was in this neighborhood last Thursday.

Elder Thornberry, of Indiana, visited "Excelsior" last Tuesday.

Mr. Hiram Berry's fine mare dropped a colt last Tuesday by Onward.

Farmers are now busy plowing up their wheat for corn. Oats have nearly all been sown.

Two of Mr. Thos. Bedford's thorough bred Bates hinders dropped calves last week by Duke of Burlington. They are worth $250 apiece.

In the case in the Woods, not in equity, of Green Taylor versus Charles Minor, the jury said: Uncle Charlie, you stay thar in that house.

The conductors and brakemen say that Jett is doing more business than any station between Louisville and Lexington, with the exception of Frankfort, in regard to freight.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets every Wednesday afternoon in the chapel of the Christian Church. The hour of meeting has been changed from three o'clock to four. Let all attend who can.

Drunkenness is the root of all evil, and the root of all good. — [Yonge].

The Hon. Samuel J. Tilden has donated $500 to the W. C. T. U. of Yorkers.

Every day's experience tends more and more to confirm me in my opinion that the temperance cause lies at the root of all social and political reform — [Richard Cobden].

According to Richardson not one of the transmitted wrongs, physical or mutual, is more certainly passed on to those yet unborn than the wrongs which are inflicted by alcohol.

Dare to be a Daniel,
Dare to stand alone,
Dare to have a purpose firm,
Dare to make it known.

THERE'S DANGER.
Write it on the liquor store.
Write it on the prison door.
Write it on the gin shop flue.
Write—aye, write this wonderful line:
"Waere there's drink there's danger."

Write it on the work house gate.
Write it on the school boy's slate.
Write it in the copy book.
That the young may on it look:
"Where there's drink there's danger."

Write it on the church yard mound.
Waere the drunk-stain dead are found.
Write it on the gallow's high.
Write it for all passers by:
"Where there's drink there's danger."

Write it underneath your feet.
Up and down the long street;
Write it for the great and small.
In the mansion, cot and hall:
"Where there's drink there's danger."

Write it on the ship, which sail.
Burne aboy by storm and gale;
Write it in large letters plain.
O'er our land and just the main:
"Where there's drink there's danger."
